AUDITORS' REPORT

To the Board of British Columbia Centre for Disease Control and Prevention Society Branch

We have audited the statement of financial position of the British Columbia Centre for Disease Control and Prevention Society Branch as at March 31, 2008 and the statement of operations, changes in net assets and cash flows for the year then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Branch's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that we plan and perform an audit to obtain reasonable assurance whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation.

In our opinion, these financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Branch as at March 31, 2008 and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles.

Notes to Financial Statements
(Expressed in thousands of dollars)

Year ended March 31, 2008

The British Columbia Centre for Disease Control and Prevention Society Branch (the Branch) is a member of the Provincial Health Services Authority (PHSA or the Authority) which was created under the Health Authorities Act of British Columbia on December 12, 2001 with a Board of Directors appointed by the Ministry of Health and is one of six Health Authorities in British Columbia. The Branch is dependent on the Ministry of Health to provide sufficient funds to continue operations, replace essential equipment and complete its capital projects. The Branch is a not-for-profit organization under the Income Tax Act, and as such is exempt from income and capital taxes.

The following agencies/programs are also included in PHSA:

- British Columbia Cancer Agency Branch;
- British Columbia Drug and Poison Information Centre;
- British Columbia Mental Health Society (Riverview) Branch;
- British Columbia Provincial Renal Agency;
- British Columbia Transplant Society Branch;
- Children's & Women's Health Centre of British Columbia Branch;
- Forensic Psychiatric Services Commission; and
- Women's Health Research Institute Society.

Effective December 31, 2001, the above noted branch societies except for the Women's Health and Research Institute were amalgamated with, and continue the operations of, their respective former societies under bylaws and constitutions consistent with the PHSA. The amalgamated Branch is considered a continuation of the former Branch for financial reporting purposes.

The Branch was formed for the purpose of detection, prevention and control of disease in the province of British Columbia and the provision of specialty health support services in the province. Activities of the Branch include ongoing surveillance and analysis of communicable diseases within the province; development of immunization programs and distribution of vaccines and pharmaceuticals; operation of clinics for testing of communicable diseases; provision of diagnostic and consultative services to other health care providers in the province; and provision of training and education to healthcare providers and the public.

1. Significant accounting policies:

(a) Basis of presentation:

The financial statements have been prepared by management in accordance with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles.

BRITISH COLUMBIA CENTRE FOR DISEASE CONTROL AND PREVENTION SOCIETY BRANCH

Notes to Financial Statements
(Expressed in thousands of dollars)

1. Significant accounting policies (continued):

(b) Revenue recognition:

The Branch follows the deferral method of accounting for contributions which include donations and government contributions.

Under the Health Insurance Act and Regulations thereto, the Branch is funded primarily by the Province of British Columbia in accordance with budget management plans and performance agreements established and approved by the Ministry of Health.

Approved operating contributions are recorded as revenue in the period to which they relate and the related expenses are incurred. Where a portion of a contribution relates to a future period, it is deferred and recognized in that subsequent period.

Unrestricted contributions are recognized as revenue when received or receivable if the amount to be received can be reasonably estimated and collection is reasonably assured.

Externally restricted contributions are recognized as revenue in the period in which the related expenses are incurred. Contributions restricted for the purchase of capital assets are deferred and amortized into revenue on the same basis as the related capital assets are depreciated.

(c) Asset and service contributions:

Contributions of assets, supplies and services that would otherwise have been purchased are recorded at fair value at the date of contribution, provided a fair value can be reasonably determined.

(d) Inventories of materials and supplies

Inventories, consisting of biological, pharmaceutical and other materials and supplies are recorded at the lower of weighted average cost and market value.

At March 31, 2008, inventories includes $17,117 (2007 - $16,883) of anti-viral vaccinations, which expire between fiscal years 2010 and 2011.

(e) Capital assets:

Purchased capital assets are recorded at cost. Contributed capital assets are recorded at fair value at the date of contribution. The Branch records depreciation on its assets on a straight-line basis over the useful life of the assets as follows:

Buildings	20 - 50 years
Leasehold improvements	Lease term to a maximum of 20 years
Building service equipment	15 - 20 years
Equipment	3 - 20 years
Assets under capital lease	5 - 7 years

1. Significant accounting policies (continued):

(f) Employee future benefits:

Liabilities, net of plan assets, are recorded for employee retirement allowance benefits as employees render services to earn the benefits.

The actuarial determination of the accrued benefit obligations uses the projected benefit method prorated on service (which incorporates management's best estimate of future salary levels, other cost escalation, retirement ages of employees, and other actuarial factors). For the purpose of calculating the expected return on plan assets, those assets are valued at fair value. Actuarial gains and losses that exceed 10% of the benefit obligation are amortized over the average remaining service period of active covered employees. The average remaining service period of the active covered employees entitled to retirement allowance benefits is 10 years (2007 - 10 years). Past service costs arising from plan amendments are deferred and amortized on a straight-line basis over the average remaining service period of employees active at the date of amendment.

Defined contribution plan accounting is applied to multi-employer defined benefit plans and, accordingly, contributions are expensed.

(g) Asset retirement obligations:

The Branch recognizes an asset retirement obligation in the period in which it incurs a legal obligation associated with the retirement of a tangible long-lived asset including leased premises resulting from the acquisition, construction, development, and/or normal use of the asset. The fair value of the asset retirement cost is capitalized as part of the carrying value of the related long-lived asset and is depreciated over the life of the asset. The liability may be changed to reflect the passage of time and changes in the fair value assessment of the retirement obligation.

(h) Measurement uncertainty:

The preparation of financial statements requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and the disclosure of contingent liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the reporting period. Management reviews all significant estimates affecting its financial statements on a recurring basis and records the effect of any necessary adjustments. Significant areas requiring the use of estimates include determination of rates of depreciation of capital assets, recognition of asset retirement obligations, contingencies and, in particular, assumptions with respect to accrued retirement allowance benefits. Actual results could differ from the estimates.

1. Significant accounting policies (continued):

(i) Financial instruments:

During the year, the Branch adopted the Canadian Institute of Chartered Accountants (CICA) Handbook Section 3855, Financial Instruments – Recognition and Measurement and Section 3861, Financial Instruments - Disclosure and Presentation to account for its financial assets and financial liabilities. These sections require that all non-derivative financial assets and liabilities be measured at fair value with the exception of (i) loans and receivables and held-to-maturity investments, which should be measured at amortized cost; and (ii) investments in equity instruments that do not have a quoted market price in an active market, which should be measured at cost, other than such instruments that are classified as held-for-trading.

Subsequent measurement and changes in fair value will depend on initial classification. Held for trading assets and liabilities are measured at fair value and changes in fair value are recognized in net earnings. Available for sale investments are measured at fair value with changes in fair value recorded in the statement of changes in net assets until the investment is re-recognized or other than temporarily impaired at which time the amounts would be recorded in net earnings.

These sections also require that gains and losses on financial instruments measured at fair value be recognized in net income in the periods in which they arise, with the exception of (i) unrealized gains and losses on financial assets classified as available-for-sale, which are recognized directly in net assets until the financial asset is derecognized or becomes impaired; and (ii) certain financial instruments that are part of a designated hedging relationship.

The adoption of these sections did not result in an adjustment to opening net assets.

(j) Accounting policy changes:

On December 1, 2006, the CICA issued two new accounting standards: Handbook Section 3862, Financial Instruments – Disclosures (Section 3862), and Handbook Section 3863, Financial Instruments – Presentation (Section 3863). These new standards become effective for the Branch on April 1, 2008.

Sections 3862 and 3863 replace Handbook Section 3861, Financial Instruments – Disclosure and Presentation, revising and enhancing its disclosure requirements, and carrying forward unchanged its presentation requirements. These new sections place increased emphasis on disclosures about the nature and extent of risks arising from financial instruments and how the entity manages those risks.

The Branch is currently evaluating the impact of these accounting standards for fiscal year 2009.

2. Financial instruments:

The Branch's financial instruments include cash, accounts receivable, accounts payable and accrued liabilities, accrued retirement allowance liabilities, asset retirement obligations, and obligations under capital leases. It is management's opinion that the Branch is not exposed to significant interest, currency or credit risks arising from these financial instruments. The fair values of these instruments approximate their carrying values, except for the fair value of accrued retirement allowance liabilities which are disclosed in note 9.

9. Employee benefits:

(a) Retirement allowance:

Certain employees with ten or twenty years of service and having reached a certain age are entitled to receive special payments upon retirement or as specified by the collective agreements. These payments are based upon accumulated sick leave credits and entitlements for each year of service.

The Branch's liabilities are based on an actuarial valuation as at December 31, 2006. The next required valuation will be as of December 31, 2009.

Information about retirement allowance benefits is as follows:

	2008	2007

9. Employee benefits (continued):

(b) Long-term disability benefits:

The Healthcare Benefit Trust (the Trust) administers long-term disability, group life insurance, accidental death and dismemberment, extended health, and dental claims for certain employee groups of the Branch and other provincially-funded organizations.

The Trust is a multiple-employer plan with respect to long-term disability benefits initiated after September 30, 1997. The assets and liabilities for these long-term disability benefits have been segregated for PHSA, but not for the individual branches of PHSA. Accordingly, the Branch participates in a multi-employer defined benefit plan for long-term disability benefits that is now restricted to members of PHSA.

The most recent actuarial valuation for the PHSA plan at December 31, 2007 indicated a net liability of $765. Contributions of $142 (2007 - $99) were expensed during the year. The PHSA plan covers approximately 4,173 active employees of which approximately 109 are employees of the Branch. The next required valuation will be as of December 31, 2008.

The group life insurance, accidental death and dismemberment, extended health, dental, and pre-October 1, 1997 long-term disability claims administered by the Trust are structured as a multi-employer plan. Contributions to the Trust of $272 (2007 - $263) were expensed during the year. The most recent actuarial valuation for the plan at December 31, 2007 indicated a surplus of $41,089 (December 31, 2007 - $25,564). The plan covers approximately 77,289 active employees of which 100 (2007 - 120) are employees of the Branch. The next required valuation will be as of December 31, 2008.

(c) Employee pension benefits:

The Branch and its employees contribute to the Municipal Pension Plan and the Public Service Pension Plan, multi-employer defined benefit pension plans governed by the BC Public Sector Pension Plans Act.

Employer contributions to the Municipal Pension Plan of $720 (2007 - $657) were expensed during the year. Every three years an actuarial valuation is performed to assess the financial position of the plan and the adequacy of plan funding. The most recent actuarial valuation for the plan at December 31, 2006 indicated a surplus of $438,000. The actuary does not attribute portions of the surplus to individual employers. The plan covers approximately 145,000 active employees of which approximately 121 are employees of the Branch. The next required valuation will be as of December 31, 2009 with results available in 2010.

Employer contributions to the Public Service Pension Plan of $734 (2007 - $771) were expensed during the year. Every three years an actuarial valuation is performed to assess the financial position of the plan and the adequacy of plan funding. The most recent actuarial valuation for the plan at March 31, 2005 indicated an unfunded liability of $767,000. The actuary does not attribute portions of the deficit to individual employers. The plan covers approximately 52,000 active employees of which approximately 42 are employees of the Branch. The next required valuation will be as of March 31, 2008, with results available in 2009.

10. Deferred capital contributions:

Deferred capital contributions represent externally restricted contributions and other funding received for the purchase of capital assets. The amortization of deferred capital contributions is recorded as revenue in the Statement of Operations.

	2008	2007
Deferred capital contributions, beginning of year	$ 7,661	$ 7,440

12. Commitments and contingencies (continued):

(b) Litigation and claims:

The nature of the Branch's activities is such that there will be litigation pending or in progress at any time. With respect to claims at March 31, 2008, management is of the opinion that it has valid defenses and appropriate insurance coverage in place, or if there is unfunded risk, such claims are not expected to have a material effect on the Branch's financial position. Outstanding contingencies are reviewed on an ongoing basis and are provided for based on management's best estimate of the ultimate settlement. Risk management and insurance services for all Health Authorities in British Columbia are provided by the Risk Management Branch of the Ministry of Finance.

(c) Asset retirement obligations:

The Branch has accrued asset retirement obligations of $28 (2007 - $16) representing the fair value of the legal obligations related to leased premises after charges for accretion and depreciation. The settlement of these obligations will occur at the expiry of the leases. The fair value of the legal obligation was determined by discounting the estimated cash outflows of $37 (2007 - $36) over the respective lease terms at a credit-adjusted risk free rate of 5.26% (2007 - 5.26%). The asset retirement obligations have been capitalized as part of capital assets and will be amortized over the respective premise lease terms.
