Bariatric Obesity Podcasts 1-4:

In this series we speak with Marylou Muir on what elements are essential to an MSI program that addresses bariatric risk factors. Marylou will discuss her experiences with developing, implementing and evaluating best-practice bariatric MSI programs. She will discuss common challenges during implementation such as organizational commitment, funding and conducting staff training. She will also explain what indicators are typically used to indicate success and how they can be measured.

To receive a copy of the Bariatric Obesity podcast contact ohsconnect@phsa.ca.