Trans Care BC’s Medical Director and Nurse Educator provide a review and discussion of preventative health screening in the context of gender-affirming care.

Trans human rights activist and lawyer. Advocate for trans inclusion in unions and workplaces and volunteer at the Catherine White Holman Wellness.

Nurse Practitioner and founding member of the Transgender Youth Clinic. Provides education on adolescent brain development, mental health, substance use and gender diverse identities.

Registered nurse with many years of experience in various practice settings coordinating and delivering post-operative care for patients who have had gender-affirming surgery.