

Ethics for Lunch: Fall 2026

Save the Date

The PHSA Ethics for Lunch series is an opportunity for all health-care workers to examine complex ethical issues.

We're excited to announce the speakers who will be coming to this wonderful space of learning and reflection. Mark your calendar!

Tuesday, September 29, 2026, 12:00pm PT

Topic: Not What We Recommended: Navigating Declined Care and Non-Standard Requests in Pregnancy and Birth

Speaker: Amy Braunstein

Register now

Wednesday, October 14, 2026, 12:00pm PT

Topic: Rethinking Agency and Autonomy in Children's Healthcare: A Multi-generational Discussion on Clinical Practice and Research

Speakers: Amarens Matthiesen, Franco Carnevale, Lauren Delaney, Nika Rovensky, and Ryan Kent

Register now

Tuesday, November 10, 2026, 12:00pm PT

Topic: The "Thick Skin" Bias: Equitable access to supportive care at end of life

Speaker: Brittney Schichter and BC Pomeroy

Register now

Wednesday, December 9, 2026, 12:00pm PT

Topic: Waitlists, Ethics and Moral Distress

Speaker: Michael Montess

Register now

Ethics for Lunch is a self-approved group learning activity as defined by the Maintenance of Certification Program of the Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons of Canada. Certificates of attendance are provided upon request. Participants are advised to confirm with their professional body or organization whether this session or attendance qualifies for educational credits.

Register now by clicking on the session links. Please note that topics are preliminary. Further information on the speakers, specific learning objectives, and content of the sessions will be posted on the POD closer to the session date.

Email ethics@phsa.ca to join our mailing list!

